Wrangell Mills Change Hands

TAKEN FROM COURT AFTER YEARS

After being in the hands of the court for several years owing to the death of the owners, Thomas Wilson and Rufus Sylvester, the Wrangell Mills are for the first time clear and when started in the spring it will be a purely local management.

The mills were given over from the court to the Wilson & Sylvester Mill Co., Inc., on the first of October which company is composed of Mrs. M. A. Wilson, president; F. Matheson, secretary and H. Gartley, treasurer, who will operate the mill. T. C. McHugh has been appointed the attorney for the Sylvester heirs, while Mrs. Wilson will be attorney for the former.

The mill expects to have their annual overhauling through the latter part of January and the mill will start immediately. The summer cut is expected to be a long one. There will probably be no changes in the management of the mill and Fred Wilson will remain as general manager.

A guard to be fastened to the head to enable a man to shave the back of his neck safely and accurately has been patented.

Geo. Barnes Is Commissioner

Mayor George H. Barnes received a recess appointment as U. S. Commissioner for Wrangell during the absence of Commissioner W. G. Thomas on October 15 from Judge Jennings at Ketchikan.

The appointment was a very popular one and much needed as it eliminates the necessity of taking all prisoners to Petersburg during the absence of Commissioner Thomas who was called south to testify before the superior court at Los Angeles.

A Big Game Hunter Returns

Henry C. Myers, of London, England, came down the Stikine river Monday from the hunting grounds at the head waters of the river.

Mr. Myers was accompanied down the river by Nick Reimer and a native guide named McLusky. The trip was made in a large canoe as they were too late for the river boat and report that the river is exceptionally low.

Last Saturday was the 47th anniversary of the purchase of Alaska from Russia and by a Proclamation from the Governor was made a legal holiday.

Supt. Hayes Plans Trail At Stikine

Superintendent of Government Roads "Jack" Hayes and Assistant W. F. Pendergast were passengers up from Ketchikan on the Dolphin and left Tuesday on the Duckland for the mouth of the Stikine to blaze a trail from the salt water up some twelve miles to make travel possible up the river possible in all kinds of winter weather.

Supt. Hayes is accompanied on the trip by Representative Svindseth who is making the trip in the interest of the Wrangell Chamber of Commerce who is working for the road.

This is one of the most important roads that the government has ever built for this region and will mean much to winter travel to the interior through Wrangell.

The party returned late last evening and Mr. Hayes has mapped out a very feasible route that he will put before the road commission. The plan includes a trail to start from the Garnet Ledge north to the south end of Cottonwood Island to which a cable will be stretched from the mainland with a basket attached for transmitting travelers and freight to the Island, and a trail built the length of the Island to the north end about two and a half miles from where travel can be made on the solid ice above.

Another feature of the road is the building of a cabin on Cottonwood Island for the use of travelers which is almost an absolute necessity in traveling down the river in an open boat and as so often bad weather makes the trip across to Wrangell almost impossible.

Work on the trail will probably start early in the spring.

Cecil Denny Is Laid To Rest

The funeral of Charles d'Ernee was held at Red Men's Hall at 11 A. M. The services were held under the auspices of the local Moose Lodge and the body laid to rest in the Red Men's Cemetery south of town.

Charles d'Ernee, locally known as Cecil Denny, was 44 years of age, born in London, England, and was one of the best known men in this part of the country having been in business here for a number of years. The deceased is survived by his wife, here, one sister, Margaret, London, England, and three brothers, Fred, London, England; Sidney, Liverpool, England, and Vivian d'Ernee, of Melbourne, Australia.

Young Couple In Great Sorrow

The town was very shocked to learn of the sad misfortune that has befallen Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Carlstrom during the past week when twin girls were born to Mrs. Carlstrom and survived only about two hours. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

Dr. Shurick reports the mother is improving as well as could be expected.

Meteor Brings Load Of Coal

The big freighter, Meteor, of the Pacific Coast S. S. Company was in port last Tuesday morning from the south. She brought 50 tons of coal for J. G. Grant, which she unloaded proceeding north.

Juneau streets are to be paved with crushed rock and sand. The rock contains considerable lime and the material will cement itself in time.

Breaks In Jinks' Bed Room

Some miscreant without an ounce of manhood in his makeup, thinking that our old friend Captain Jinks was on the verge of being a millionaire and would appropriate some of the excess cash for his own personal benefit, crawled over the board fence back of his store last Friday night while Jinks was enjoying the movies, and breaking the lock off the door of his sleeping room, went through everything in the room, except his china book in which he had placed his roll of $15, and finding nothing, appropriated a bottle of "Gin" to help him forget his troubles. Jinks is out with a reward of $20 for any information leading to the arrest and conviction of the party.

Shingle Mill Is Waiting For Logs

The Wrangell Shingle Company shingle mill is closed down at present waiting for the weather to abate somewhat to be able to bring in a boom of logs. Manager Smith reports that they expect to cut 500,000 more shingles before the mill is shut down for the winter.

Steamers Schedule From The South

The following is a schedule of the boats due here from the south. Alki, Oct. 24. Humboldt, Oct. 26. Spokane, Oct. 27. Princess Sophia, Oct. 27. Dolphin, Oct. 30.

Attorney General McReynolds has directed Judge R. W. Jennings to go to Valdez in November and hold a special term of court. He will try those cases in which Judge Brown is disqualified.

"Winifred" Broke Down

Another party of hunters and miners came in last night from up the river. The party consisted of Geo. Eaton, of London England, a big game hunter and Joe Curl, Jim Moe and P. Green.

The men came down the river in an open boat and met the Duckland at the Garnet Ledge and came on to town on her.

The party report passing the river boat Winifred at Clearwater, 30 miles this side of Telegraph broke down, engine trouble seemed to be the cause. The Winifred left here on Sunday the 12 and was passed last Friday at Clearwater by the party.

Wrangellites At Pioneers Home

E. Ludecke and John Beardsell left on the City of Seattle Oct. 21 bound for Sitka where they will make their future home at the place provided for the men who have grown old in the upbuilding and development of this great northland of ours.

The Sentinel is short one of its force this week, Louie Paul having left on the Dolphin for Portland where he will spend the winter.

Tom Sure A Busy Marshal

MANY CASES FOR COMMISSIONER

Deputy Marshal Tom Dalgity has proven his venerable right to the title during the past week by the way he has raked in the wrong doers before the new Commissioner, Mayor Barnes.

The first case was Tommy Wilson charged with assault and battery on the person of Lizzie Joseph, and was fined $5 and cost. The next was David Moore charged with petty larceny from the gas boat Shamrock, who drew a 90 day sentence on October 20th. The next to fall was J. S. Koonce, arrested Wednesday for vagrancy and fined $150, which he is serving in jail. Next was Frank Marcias, also vagrancy, who drew a $200 fine and will work for the country for a while. Then came three cases of drunk and disorderly conduct, Walter Shadasty, Tom Whitmore and John Kadishan, who drew three days apiece. And the last, the sixth in one day, Emma Paul, for assault and battery who drew a $5 fine. And Tom says that there's more coming yet.

Governor Sulzer - - Tammany Hall

William Sulzer, impeached, is the victim of the most corrupt, cruel and powerful organization ever tolerated by an American people—Tammany Hall. His sins and shortcomings did not find him out, Boss Murphy, merciless and resourceful, exposed them to the public. Swift condemnation followed. And thereby hangs this disgraceful political tale.

But in the undoing of Tammany made Sulzer Tammany Hall itself is exposed in abhorrent form—popular attention centered upon its iniquitous strength as never before—and the day of its undoing is hastened. If in triumphing over a disobedient creature, punishing him unto political death for refusing to do its bidding, Tammany has sounded its own death knell—and this surely is to be believed—then the Empire state and the whole country will profit by these impeachment proceedings. Otherwise no enduring public good has been subserved.

William Sulzer, elected to the high office held by Samuel J. Tilden and Grover Cleveland and the giants of the opposite political school exemplified by Theodore Roosevelt and Charles E. Hughes as seen in retrospect, was a conscienceless political adventurer, void of principle or ideal, and bent only upon success at whatever price William Sulzer, impeached, it is safe and charitable to believe, was an executive honestly struggling against hopeless odds to do his duty toward the state and attune himself to a higher and better political life. And but for Tammany Hall, sordid, relentless and as pillaging as in Tweed's heyday, the might have succeeded. Who knows

He pays the penalty of disgrace and deep humiliation, is pilloried before the world, not for official dereliction, but acts known to Tammany Hall when it elected him and to which it was utterly indifferent until his breach with Murphy. That is the long and short of the case with William Sulzer.

The court found him innocent on all charges based on official acts and guilty only on articles one and two, charging the falsification of his statement of campaign contributions, and perjury for so doing. He deserved impeachment.

To those not interested in the Sulzer personality the incident is interesting as showing the control Tammany Hall exerts over the Democratic party of the commonwealth, and to what lengths it will go to chastise the unforgivable of defiance.

Poor, sinning Sulzer! As a victim of Tammany Hall, let pity be his portion.

In the last number of the Pacific Motor Boat is an article written by a "witty" California High School boy who made the trip up here last year in a small canoe. Some of the notes are all together wrong and we would suggest that they had better try the trip again and we think they can get a better story than that.

Subscribers Are Guilty of Felony

The Supreme Court of the United States recently made a ruling which in substance makes the subscriber who takes his paper out of the post office and refuses to pay the subscription, guilty of felony and liable of arrest, as any other who defrauds.

The following is a synopsis of the United States Supreme Court decision regarding delinquent subscriptions and is published as a matter of information for subscribers:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscription.

2. Subscribers ordering the discontinuance of their periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodical from the post office, they are responsible until they settle their bill and order their paper discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and any papers are sent to the former address, subscribers are responsible.

5. Courts have decided that refusing periodicals from the office or moving and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of that time if they do not want to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice with payment is sent to the publisher.

Prof. Carlyle of the University of Idaho thinks mutton from the arid lands of the west will take the place of beef until the American farmer can catch up with the cattle market. One of the troubles both with beef and mutton is that the tendency in recent years has been to grow cattle for milk and butter, and sheep for wool. The demand for food will compel both to be grown for meat.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., tells his Sunday school class that one trouble with the world is likewise, there is too much politics, too much gossip, too much idleness, and not enough work.

Lieut. Frank L. Austin, of the United States revenue cutter Unalga, is registered at the Rainier Grand. Since the vessel's return from a three months' cruise of Alaskan waters a short time ago, Mr. Austin has been popularly known as "Deacon" Austin, says the Seattle P.I. He was called upon to officiate at the nuptial ceremonies of Miss. Elizabeth Farquhar, of Austin, Tex., and Mr. Hannah, at St. Paul island, about a month ago. Mr. Hannah is a government agent of Alaskan fisheries and looks out for the safeguarding of the seals. He corresponded with Miss Farquhar about two months ago from Bristol bay, where he was then stationed, asking her to come immediately to St. Paul island, where he planned to be located at the time his bride-to-be arrived. Miss. Farquhar experienced considerable difficulty in reaching the island, finally being forced to travel on a government tug. On her arrival she found no trace of Mr. Hannah. In the meantime Mr. Hannah had missed connections and he could not get from Bristol bay to St. Paul island. The revenue cutter Unalga was cruising about Bristol bay in the latter part of July and Lieut. Austin, hearing of the predicament Mr. Hannah was in, after a consultation with the captain, offered to convey him to the side of his bride-to-be. When the Unalga, with Mr. Hannah aboard reached St. Paul island there stood the pretty Texas girl on the very edge of the wharf. Lieut. Austin, who is empowered with judicial powers, was immediately tagged to officiate at the nuptial ceremonies. He consented, and Miss Farquhar became Mrs. Hannah. "And now they call me 'Deacon,'" said Lieut. Austin yesterday.

The local land office has just set the date, October 2, 1914, for the hearing on three important coal land cases, involving 5,872 acres of coal lands in the Katalla coal fields. The cases are against the McQuade Anthracite Coal company, Carbon Mountain Anthracite Coal company and the Alaska Smokeless Anthracite were located by C. W. Dougherty. The government in each instance charges fraud in making the location and failure to develop and open up a mine on the property. Testimony will be submitted in the form of depositions. Testimony will be taken in New York City, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sacramento, Portland, Spokane and Seattle. —Juneau Daily Empire.

Ragnold Has A Stormy Trip

J. H. McGehee chartered the Ragnold, J. H. Myers, and left last Saturday for Point Baker to bring in a few of the supplies that had been left there from the summers fishing, and when out about 15 miles from port the gasoline began to run low and the wind was blowing a young hurricane and things began to look bad for the Ragnold when the Captain raised the sail and the boat was again under way even better than before covering the rest of the 30 miles to Point Baker in record time. Oil was procured at Point Baker and the return trip made Monday without accident.

Windjamer Star Ignores Aid

Adding to her laurels after a fast run down from the northern cannery, the Alaska Packers carrier, Star of Greenland, on October 4 scorned a towboat and sailed right up to the harbor under a favorable wind. The big windjamer under her own canvas presented a majestic appearance. Cap. Peterson brought the ship down in ten days from Wrangell. The Star is loaded with 82,046 cases of salmon.

Information Wanted

Any person having seen or heard anything of Fred Hooker, please send information to Ann Hooker, Ketchikan, Alaska. Box 73. Other papers please copy.

The government surveyors who made an attempt to reach the summit of Mt. St. Elias failed in their effort. They reached an altitude of 16,000 feet when they were compelled to turn back owing to a fierce storm raging. They express the belief that the mountain can be scaled with the proper equipment earlier in the season. There were apparently between the place where they were forced to turn back and the summit.

Judge Peter D. Overfield, formerly of Alaska, has opened a law office at Los Angeles, California.

Wrangell Cases Before The Grand Jury

Three Wrangell cases have been before the grand jury so far this term at Ketchikan; Max Rosenberg, Oscar Kechets and Henry Haldane.

In the case of Max Rosenberg, charged with supplying liquor to Indians, was called before the grand jury on the 15th and as no evidence could be found he was discharged. A true bill was found against Oscar Kechets on the charge of assault and battery. And in the case of Henry Haldane who pleaded guilty was given three months in jail which was extended provided he would assist the federal officers in the suppressing of the liquor traffic which he promised to do.

Editor Needham Is Gold Miner

Considerable space was given in one of the Douglas Island News to our former editor, T. R. Needham who has just returned there from the Kenai river country, and states that he has gold in his possession that he panned on the Melchor ground, four miles below Russian river.

Through the columns of the Sentinel I wish to thank the people of Wrangell who extended their sympathy during my recent bereavement, and especially to the Wrangell lodge No. 866, Loyal Order of Moose,

ALASKA RANKS THIRD

According to the Seattle papers, Alaska takes third rank in gold producing this year. Colorado first, California second and Nevada is fourth in rank. It is reported that ten tons of gold has been poured into the Seattle Assay office during the present year. It is also believed that this year's receipt will double that of last year. The dumping of that great amount of gold into the Seattle office is due to the successful fight made by the Seattle people to abolish the discriminatory charges that was causing the office to be passed up.
